Former major league pitcher Bobby Sprowl is in his second year at Shelton State after spending five years as pitching coach at the University of Alabama.

Sprowl coached at Shelton from 1986 until 1989 and compiled a 129-55 mark in four seasons. Under his guidance, Shelton made four straight trips to the Alabama Junior College State Tournament, finishing runner-up twice.

Sprowl enjoyed a fine college career at the University of Alabama, a second team All-American and consensus All-SEC pick in 1977. His 11.5 strikeouts per nine innings led the NCAA in 1977. Sprowl was recently named to the Crimson Tide's All-Century team.

After his playing days at Alabama, Sprowl enjoyed an eight year professional baseball career with the Boston Red Sox and Houston Astros. Sprowl, who was the number two pick of the Boston Red Sox in the June 1977 free agent draft, was a member of the 1978 team that lost a one game American League Eastern Division playoff to the New York Yankees on Bucky Dent's famous three-run homer over the Green Monster at Fenway

Park. On June 13, 1979, Bobby was traded to the Houston Astros. While a member of the Astros, Sprowl played on two Western Division Championship teams (1980 and 1981).

Sprowl has a 14-year-old son, Jon Mark. Bobby is married to the former Teresa Gibson, and the couple has one son, Trevor.

Assistant Coach

Ben Short enters his second year as an assistant coach at Shelton State where he began his collegiate baseball career in 1988 under head coach Bobby Sprowl. After 2 good years at Shelton with a record of 12-6, Ben signed with the University of Alabama. While lettering 2 years at the University, Ben compiled a record of 10-3 with 16 saves. During his senior year, he was named a third team All American after leading the country with 14 saves which is also the single season school record. After his senior year at Alabama, Ben was drafted by the New York Yankees in the 14th round. Due to a shoulder injury, Ben's professional career prematurely ended after 4 good years as a closer in the Yankees' Organization.

Ben and his wife Tammy and son Connor live in Hueytown.
